

A. FEICK & BRO.

Contractors, Carpenters & Builders

220 MIAMI AVENUE.

Tuesday Morning

Sandusky, O. March 2 1887

A. Feick & Bro.

Sandusky Ohio.

Geo.

You can send car, I think it will be safe, we are having another nice day if the wind does not get up before night.

Yours

John A. Feick

A. FEICK & BRO.

Contractors, Carpenters & Builders

220 MIAMI AVENUE.

Thursday Morning

Sandusky, O. March 2 1887

A. Feick & Bro.

Sandusky Ohio.

Geo.

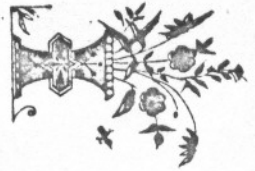

You can send car, I think it will be safe, we are having another nice day if the wind does not get up before night.

Yours

John A. F.

Sandusky, Ohio April 8th Dear Friend Johney,
 Having a few spare moments I thought I shall devote them in writing to you, to let you know that I am well and happy, hoping you are the same. Johney I suppose you think I am a nice girl for not writing any sooner you will half to excuse me this time. I am sorry thinking you not to wait so long. I left Dr. Heiter's did you hear of it. I left last week Thursday and I am staying with Lizzie now a week or two and then I am going home a while on a visit. Then I will come back again Lizzie wants me to stay until Lizzie martin comes back. They got a letter from her last week, and she said she is a coming home the 25^{of} this month at 5 P.M. The steamer Hayes is a going to make a trip tomorrow if it can get through, it started out once before but the ice was so thick that they was stuck the Eagle had to go out and get it. Tell Joe that Julia Scherz is very sick. they dont expect her to live. Pat O Brien has left town he has gone to Cleveland he is driveing in a grocerie store. Lizzie feels very bad to think that dear little Pat is gone. she sheads many tears. Tell Joe that I would like to know the reason that he does not answer my last letter. I will have to bring my letter to a close by giving you my best love. hoping to hear from you soon.

From Your truly Friend Susie Kerner Answer Soon

Dear General Johney,

Having a few spare moments
 I thought I shall devote them in writing to you, to let you know that I am well and happy, hoping you are the same, Johney I suppose you think I am a nice girl for not writing any sooner you will half to excuse me this time. I am sorry thinking you not to wait so long. I left Dr. Heiter's did you hear of it. I left last week Thursday and I am staying with Lizzie now a week or two and then I am going home a while on a visit. Then I will come back again

Sandusky, Ohio
 April 8th

Bye is want me to say with Bye is matter con. 61 sack. They got a letter from her last week, and she said she is coming home the 25 of this month at 5. P.M.

The steamer stages is a going to make a trip to morrow if it can get through, it started out once before but the ice was so thick that they was stuck. the Capt. had to go out and get it, Well Joe that Julia desery is a quick they dont expect her to live. That Morrison has left town he has gone to W. Vermont she is chiseing in a piece there. Bye is fell very bad to think that dear little. That is gone. she sheds many tears.

Well Joe that I would like to know the reason that he does not answer my last letter. I will have to give bring my letter to a close by giving you my best love. hoping it has from you soon.

From your truly
Doris Seance!
So many XXXXX

Summer 1871