Dearest Lizzie:

? Just got home from the Capitol and it now is half past eleven. Mr & Mrs Wilcox are drinking a Tom & Jerry on the head of the new mothern - law. We worked all last Sunday and every night this & last week hense the delay of my writing. I think we will get home very soon so have a little patience and we will soon be together again. If your father is bound to get married let him go it & do the best you can but treat him & her pleasant as a Doughter should and in the long run it will be the best for you and I.

Do not mind what any one else says to you but do this to please me until I get home. then I will see just what we will do. Sam Wilcox wants me to go in Business with him and will give me a good show I am really on the fence & dont know what to do. but will want to go home once more and see all the folks & what father thinks about it. Of course I do not want to leave him if I am any help to him.

I hope that we may soon be together again & treat the new mother as you would if it was your own until I get there and you will find things will go on the best for us both. I received all of your letters. Good night dear Lizzie many ---- many kisses to you Excuse me for neglecting you as I do but I mean it all right

Your Dear John

Dear Mrs Feick

I will endeavor to write to you again. It seems as though I wanted to have a chat with you every day. Words alone can't express how much we long to have you with us again. But fear a disappointment in that respect I have been very busy since you went away trying to intertain myself. But with poor eforts. The street cars are runing now. Cheyenne begins to look City like. Jennie Stanton comes quiet often now. Makes all sorts of excuses. Mother Jackson was here night before last. said she got a letter from you. I guess with us all you will be kept well posted. I have Just been waiting on table and my hand is so shakey that I can scarecly write at all. Oh yes Mr Leach come back last evening he gained 14 pounds You ought to see him he looks so well let his beard grow all over his face He seamed tickled to death to get back (But just like them all that leaves here You know.) I supose you are haveing a good time By the way have you seen any thing of the women that you expect your father to mary I suppose you would make her step light if she should come around where you are Well I guess I have told you all for this time. Wish your pa would give you money to come back with it would tickle me to death love to you

I received your letter this morning and was very glad to hear from you. If father does not get married for a year or so perhaps I can talk it out of him when I get home which I hope will be very soon if nothing happens. Let Georges brat talk all she has a mind to, only stick to what you said, and I will the same. I will get square with them all when I get home & dont you forget it. If we only can stick together we will be all right as long as we live.

Have no news this trip so I will close inclosed find letter of Anna Heinze which came today opened it & did not think it was for you.

Good bye dear Lizzie
Manny kisses and kisses
