Dearest Lizzie:

I received two letters today which pleased me very much but you say nothing of the cause of you not writing. I did not get a letter of you of March 8th & 9th. do not know what is the reason, mail perhaps got lost. we will get done here just the time I have promised and all the men will go east just that time if nothing happens I will go to Salt Lake City if I possibly can so I will be home 2 or three days later, of course this may not be for certain but want to go very much if I can. If you have such a terrible life I dont see why you did not tell me before this if you are not welcome there any more I think there are other places that you can live without such terrible things to happen as you say if you are not treated just at home tell me & I will see that you have Just for I will not have any one abuse you If I can help it. If your father does not treat you like a Daughter or want you at the house tell me of it & I will write him a letter in plain Dutch that will make him think that he would like to treat you like a Daughter if he could.

Having no news of any importance only that you give an account of yourself I will close hoping you to be a little more regular

Many K H & S

Yours

John A

Dear Friend Mrs Feick

I was very glad to hear from you again I had begain to think you had forgotten me altogether. But glad you had not. We are all well and I am working in the dining room with Delia. We have not got so many boarders as when you were here. But expect a great rush this summer I wish you were here with me this summer again We had such a pleasant time didn't we? We have had lovily weather here all winter. Well ever since that awful cold spell while you were here. last night we had a fearful blisard But nice and clear and warm this morning Sam's mother dont come here any more so I dont know anything how they are getting along. I suppose your Johnny will be home the first of the week and I know how pleased you will be. But hope you and Johnny will come west to live 'Ha ha that was a good Joke on you. it was I who wrote instead of tom and harry. and when I told the boys about it I thought they would crack their sides laughing about it. But Of Course it was all fun I wrote it with my left hand. And Tom thought it was lots of fun to have you think they were on a spree. Well I guess I have told you all for this time soo good bye write soon I know you will feel like shakeing me. But well for me I am here. Good bye from your old Pard

Write soon
